NILE C. KINNICK HIGH SCHOOL
KNOWLEDGE BY ACTION SPEAKS

DECEMBER 2, 1961

THANKSGIVING ASSEMBLY

The annual Thanksgiving assembly was held in the school auditorium on November 22, 1961. All the students were dressed appropriately for this formal assembly where the guest speaker was Dr. L. Bundgaard, who is the director of the University of Maryland, Far East Division.

Dr. Bundgaard's speech was indeed inspiring and most definitely the highlight of the assembly.

Another delightful feature was the musical entertainment provided by the musical department under the direction of Miss Rousch. Both the Junior High Chorus and Senior High Chorus showed a fine display of musical ability. Lillian and Rebecca Fittz gave an impressive violin duet. A trio, consisting of Claudia Raley, Donna Conway, and Nathan Brooks, also sang for the Student Body.

The assembly was concluded with a message from Mr. Cope and the general singing of "Prayer of Thanksgiving" by the entire student body.

CARNIVAL TO BE HELD

On Saturday, the 9th of December, the clubs and classes of Yo-Hi will hold a school carnival to make money for a student fund which will be available for loan to various classes and activities during the year. Mr. Fletcher, sponsor for the carnival, announced that it will start at 1:00 p.m. and will last until 5 p.m. It will be held in the gym.

ANGELS?

Yo-Hi will be well-represented in the latest offering of NHAY's little theater. My Three Angels is the story of three convicts who take over the problems of a family in French Guiana, and provides some amusing situations.

Appropriately enough, two of the convicts are portrayed by our own Vice Principal Mr. Spaulding, and respected English teacher Mr. Burrill. The third deviator from justice is played by Yo-Hi PTA President CDR Thomas Slattery. Kerry Slattery appears in the female lead; with featured roles are Mr. Patton, Junior High science teacher, and senior Chuck Huebner.

Performance dates are set for December 14, 15, and 16 at the Bayview Recreation Center, and admission is free.

STUDENT BODY CARDS

This year, for the first time, the junior and senior high student councils are sponsoring a new feature, student body cards. On these cards are written our school motto, "Knowledge by action speaks," and the school code. Each student will receive one free today during home room. The purpose of these cards is to promote a sense of belonging to a united school body and to serve as a reminder of the qualities and rules which we as members of the Nile C. Kinnick student body are expected to uphold and obey.

DON'T FORGET THE SNOWBALL!

JUNIORS DOWN SENIORS 6-0 IN BLOODY POWDER BOWL

Hardship weather conditions of rain and heavy winds could not keep forty courageous girls from fighting out the battle of the classes (Juniors vs Seniors) on Beach Field at 3:30 November 28, before a spirited crowd of paying spectators. Originally intended as flag football, it was wisely switched halfway through the game to a game of touch. Referees Coach Radford, Coach Slinko, Mr. Ikeda, and Mr. Fletcher seemed constantly full of amazement and wonder at what could possibly happen next.

To the uninformed spectator, it may have appeared mass confusion, but he should be informed that these were in truth carefully executed plays planned by the capable team coaches: Castle, Bernard, Smith, and Tanaka for the Seniors; and Wilson, Fearing, and Walder for the Juniors.

Definitely adding to the colorful atmosphere were coquettish cheerleaders on both sides. For the Seniors, Jumping Johnny Haley, Cutie Ken Lindstrom, Romping Rod MacRitchie, and Whirling Wayne Burr cheered to no avail. Juniors Jan Donaldson, Stephanie Bannister, Donna Kriz and G. (Giggles) Hansen worked for spirit in the stands also.

The highlight of halftime festivities was the presentation of the Queen and King. Popular and vivacious cheerleader Kennie Lindstrom bounced out to receive recognition as the school sweetheart, while hard-working Coach Castle became her red-faced King. Miss Lloyd presented the honors.

While the Seniors did lose, the girls can console themselves with the thought that they have retained femininity. And don't feel too badly, Senior coaches, it wasn't your fault. After all, what can you expect from the unpredictable female?

BASKETBALL SQUAD CHOSEN

The basketball squad has been chosen for this year's team. Hopes are high that Yo-Hi will have a successful season. Returning varsity lettermen are Gary Bloom, Roberto Melliza, Dennis Sprengle, Tom Bodine, and Arnold Long. Other players with varsity experience are Tim Pietsch and Danny Brannen, formerly at Christian Academy in Tokyo

TINY N. TERMITE

A survey has been conducted to determine the cause of the lack of interest of the robust knights in this school in the members of the fairer sex. This lackadaisical attitude was brought to light by the absence of purchased tickets to the Snow Ball Dance.

For the purpose of deriving an answer to this impending crisis, a committee of last minutemen was formed.

What is wrong? Are these idealists searching for the perfect girl and are so egoistic as to feel that they are too good for this tribe of females? Sometimes we get the age old excuse, "I'm broke," yet how many Honda Cubs will be repaired on the money necessary to escort one lovely woman to the Snow Ball? And then we have the prize of the evening, "There's nobody left to take" (?) Obviously this gentleman is either deaf, blind or just a downright recluse. Our next specimen falls into one of two categories either he's in training for basketball or he doesn't even realize the female race exists. Last but not least, we have the procrastinating fellow who feels that an invitation is better late than never. Has he ever tried to make a dress overnight?

What should be done? Well, for one thing, remember "There is Nothing Like a Dame"!!!

JUNIOR HIGH DANCE

The Junior High Social Committee, under the supervision of Mrs. Hunter, is planning a dance to be held at the Bayview Recreation Center on the 2nd of December. The price of admission is 25¢.

SNOWBALL

Emerald Frost is the original theme of this year's Christmas Snow Ball. The Juniors have been working hard to make this December 1st a memorable evening for all. Tickets have been on sale at $1.25 a couple. The dance begins at 7:30, and will be held at the Neet Nac Club. There is much speculation as to the queen and her court, who will be announced at the dance.
