CITIZENS OF THE WEEK

The new Citizens of the week are once again posted with pictures on the main bulletin board by the office. The selected ones for this week are senior John Haley, junior Peggy Bronson, sophomore Marie Pace and freshman Tim Kennedy. Along with pictures of each student there is data on his pet peeve, life's ambition, age favorite color, favorite song and hometown.

FTA FEATURES CAREER MONTH

April is Teaching Career Month — it's a time for calling public attention to the importance of getting and keeping good teachers for America's schools and colleges.

Teaching Career Month is an important event sponsored by the National Education Association.

If you are interested in making teaching your profession, you are invited to attend a meeting of the FTA. Each month a program is planned to inform the members about teaching. If you find this of interest, contact Kala Uyeoka or Mr. Bruner for information.

BB BANQUET TAKES PLACE

The 1962 Basketball season officially ended at the Lettermen's Club Banquet on Saturday, April 7. Players and their dates attended the feast along with the honored guests.

Reigning as the queen of the evening was Sue Slagle, and her glittering court consisted of Marie Pace and Binki Kramer.

FAVORITES TO BE CHOSEN

Class Favorites of the junior, sophomore and freshman classes are going to be selected for the annual. The requirements for the favorites are:

1. Each applicant must be passing his subjects, and must be of good conduct.
2. Each applicant must submit a petition with the signatures of 15 students in his class.
3. Applications are to be submitted to Miss Lloyd in room 310.

A boy and a girl from each class will be chosen after vacation in an election.

BROADWAY COMES TO YO-HI

The glee club's "A Night on Broadway" will be presented to students and adults tonight, April 13, at eight o'clock in the school gym. Tickets are 25¢ for students and 50¢ for adults.

Immediately following the dinner, Mr. Bill Paul of the YCAC basketball team, addressed the assemblage. He emphasized the importance of leadership — athletically, scholastically, and in daily life. Especially stressed was the will to win — in any situation.

The teams and coaches were recognized and then the highlight of the evening took place — the awards.

Tim Pietsch carried off the Most Valuable Player award, while Richie Edmunds was the Best Defensive Player; Arnie Long was Captain; and Ron Romanosky made the Most Free Throws. Bob Piatt received the JV Captain award.

The more a man thinks, the better adapted he becomes to thinking, and education is nothing if it is not the methodical creation of the habit of thinking.

Yo-Hi lost 6 to 2 at Zama on Friday, April 6

The two Yo-Hi runs were collected in the second inning by Long and Craft, putting Yo-Hi ahead 2 to 1 until the fifth inning.

In the fifth, Zama capitalized on Yo-Hi errors and scored five runs.

For Yo-Hi it was two runs on five hits. Edmunds went the distance for the Devils striking out 10 and giving up 4 walks.

Zama got their 3 runs on eight hits.

TRACK TEAM HAS FIRST ENCOUNTER

Yo-Hi's young track team entered its first meet Saturday, April 7. It was a triangular meet with Zama and ASIJ on Zama's track. A strong Zama team swept most of the events. Yo-Hi was close behind ASIJ who finished well in the field events.

In the 100-yard dash Lew DePriest placed second with eleven seconds flat while Zama's sprinter had a 10.6 seconds time. In the 220 yard dash, Alva Cusick came in third with a 25.2 seconds and Zama's winning time was 24.7. Rod Wingate ran the 440 in 60 seconds to take third place. Ray Greene came in a close fourth on the half mile, finishing in 2 minutes and 21 seconds. ASIJ's winning time was 2:13.8.

Yo-Hi's best mile runner, Danny Brannen, who is considered the best miler in the district due to an unofficial record time of 4 minutes 57 seconds, was unable to run due to pulled leg muscles. ASIJ's best miler won the most grueling race in 5 minutes and 13 seconds. (continued next column)

The year — 1962

The month — April

The date — Thirteenth

The day — Friday

The occasion — Come now, oh ye knowledgeable students of the occult, have not my teachings taken root in your minds? Today is our day — we, the sorceresses of Yo-Hi shall now review our past lessons, and learn some new ones.

1. Our leader, and supreme guide is his most Demonly Majesty, toward whose glory and pleasure, we all labor.
2. The most gullible of our victims are teachers, who, as everyone knows, can be easily fooled and frightened.
3. At extremely boring intervals, we shall transform ourselves into small explosives, planted in key locations, and work our magic Boom!
4. We shall enter the bodies of branded pranksters, and completely overthrow their actions, thus causing havoc and ch to teachers and students — causing our physical covering to earn a bad reputation.
5. To eliminate suspecting non-sorceresses, we shall tamper with their grade cards. Everyone knows that parents can do a better job with a curse, than we can.
6. We shall enter the drinking water of Yo-Hi's Devils, as tranquilizers, and pacify them as much as possible at crucial moments. This shall be done in as unsuspecting a manner as possible.

To these old rules, we add new ones — special for the occasion — Friday the thirteenth.

1. We shall gather as many black cats as there are student at Yo-Hi, and set them to work. The cats shall persistently follow their victims, and when the occasion arises, shall howl as long and loudly as possible.
2. We shall pave the hallways with mirrors, thus giving everyone a golden opportunity to break as many as possible. Remember — seven years.
3. We shall get into the Twist of things, by taking our poltergeist pills.
4. We shall, by mental telepathy, persuade the Yo-Hi teachers to overburden their pupils with lengthy and numerous assignments for the Easter vacation.
5. For those unfortunate boys who have not, as yet, found the prom date of their dreams, we shall provide them with a date. Our sisters, the Vampires, shall escort them — or rather — be escorted by them, when they attend the prom.

(Class dismissed!)

Rick Hernandez ran the Piatt and Rod Wingate came in second with 4:07 time. In the field events Yo-Hi's only showing was a third place throw of the discus by Alva Cusick. The best shot-put thrower for Yo-Hi was Jack Miller, who placed fifth.
