Our KIDS!

Dear Parents,

I'm very glad writing this letter inquiring if you all are in perfect health. If I commit any mistakes in this, please forgive me and I'll appreciate that very much. As for my family over here, my parents and we children are as well as usual. My siblings and I keep on going to school regularly every day both in the morning and afternoon. Your support is so great for me that I don't know how to express my gratitude to you other than making many efforts in my daily schooling to become successful later in life to deserve to be your foster child.

Daddies and Momnies, I received last month an amount of VN $950, 1 couple of mats, 1 pair of sandals and 1 vitamin bottle. Thank you very much for all these.

Well, I beg to close and state this is written by my own mother as I can't do that by myself as yet.

OUR Son!

Mai Thi Hoa

Dear Parents,

I would be very happy if this letter finds you in the best of health. My family and I are doing fine here, thank God. I don't know how I shall ever repay you for your help. I promise to be diligent at school so to show my appreciation.

Last February 14, I received your monthly allowance of VN $950 together with one mosquito net and two cakes of toilet soap. I thank you very much indeed. I pray the Lord to bless you and keep you in good health.

Yours affectionately,
Do Van Hung

Privileges!

SENIOR

Once again at the beginning of the year, the question concerning Senior privileges arises.

Mr. Spaulding and Mr. Lacey have been conferring and soon will come up with the verdict on which of the past privileges will be revived and what possible new privileges might be started.

Previous years have shown the Seniors lacking in responsibility concerning privileges. Many Seniors misuse them. Since they are privileges and not rights there should be respect for them by the underclassmen and the Seniors.

Let's all show that we are mature enough to have these privileges. Remember, underclassmen, someday they will be yours. Respect them.

Stick With Yo-Hi!

Here it is September again--the back-to-school, get-acquainted, new-activities, sweat-and-study, busy month. Also the month for the "Echoes" annual "school spirit" article.

The majority of you are probably as tired as I am of hearing about it. However, it can't be helped. The general absence of school spirit at Yo-Hi is deplorable, and can and should be improved.

In all probability, the main reason for this lack of school spirit is the fact that most of us (consciously or unconsciously) feel that our presence here at Yo-Hi is only a temporary one. How often we hear someone refer to a school which he attended elsewhere as "my school."

Granted, our stay here is a temporary one. And undoubtedly ivy-covered walls, a favorable location, years of tradition, and a venerable name (all of which Yo-Hi unfortunately does not have, and schools elsewhere seem to have) would promote pride in an Alma Mater.

We Yo-Hians, though, should take this handicap as a challenge, and try to find the "good things" about our school. Take a moment and honestly examine Yo-Hi. Consider our high level of education, our excellent teachers and administrators, the opportunities to meet new friends and see new places, our wonderful accomplishments in the past, the great potential within our student body for success in all fields this year. With a positive attitude we would probably find that it isn't hard to like Yo-Hi after all!

Be proud of Yo-Hi. Love it. Support it. Be loyal to it. Yo-Hi is your school.

Yea! Yea! Cheerleaders!!!

Isn't it wonderful to be back in the swing of school, pep rallies, and football games with all the spirit and excitement they bring? But would it all be quite so great without our cheerleaders?

This year there is a change in our cheerleading organization. We now have the much sought after JV cheerleaders. Therefore, we will have fresh voices for each game. All ten cheerleaders are now at work getting ready for the coming season.

Much hard work and practice are necessary for a squad to perform well and cultivate enthusiasm among spectators. "Those are our cheerleaders," is a statement that has always been made with pride at Yo-Hi. This year will be no exception.

JOBS

This summer many fellow-students at Yo-Hi got jobs and worked in the Yokohama-Yokosuka area. Many of them found jobs on Yokosuka Naval Base, even though they lived in Yokohama. This tended to be a grind for some of them, as they had to get up quite early to make the trip down to Yokosuka Base. Anyway, some of these workers were:

Jeff Borges: Worked for the Yokosuka Naval Hospital Sanitation Department.

Kathy Stanley: Worked in the Shore Electronics Office of Ship Repair Facility, Yokosuka.

Bob Curran: Was a swimming instructor at Green Beach pool During summer fun.

John Richardson:

Joe Lippert: "Worked" as Painters for

Justin Asai: Ship Repair Facility.

Ron Hazen:

Jim Shepard: Worked at the Yokosuka Navy Exchange (House and Gardens).

THINGS

Things most teachers would like to see:

- At least a few people doing some homework...
- A summer vacation lasting far into spring...
- A lot more money in their pockets...
- All boys with long hair to have their heads shaved...
- A good year at Yo-Hi...

GRIPEs

Gripe Time

Well readers, it's that time again!
What time?

Why the time to tell us you latest gripes, of course! So how about it? What's your gripe?

Ken Clark-School starts too soon!

Sue Heath-School starts too soon!

Carol Moore-The snack bar is too crowded with fat noisy ladies sitting around talking while we stand!

Cindy Jacobsen-Seniors demand a Senior lounge.

Leslie Fousé-The halls are too crowded.

good on the field Thursday night? .....Ann, heard you lost something of considerable importance.....Find it yet?.....Diane, you still have a thing for #3 I see...

Robin, what's the real truth about Nikko?.....Hey Julie, seems to me you had a good time this weekend!.....What about you Taffi--not so hot, huh?.....Here's your name Gamble.....Debbie Barker feels like tuna fish, Huh, Debbie?

LUNCH

Each and every school day I go through the same old maddening struggle that many of you go through: LUNCH PERIOD. When that bell rings, everyone makes such a rush for the door that it's almost a miracle that nobody has been trampled to death. "Get out of my way or I'll knock you down" holds fairly true for the description of the rush in the hallways.

When outside we all quickly walk over to the cafeteria for a seat. However, when we arrive there, the tables are always occupied by a bunch of women who are just sitting and talking with friends and sipping about an eighth of a coke.

So we jump in line for our lunch and hope that we can get a chair later. As everyone knows, the hardest part to get past in the lunch line is the coke machine and ice tray. After you get your lunch (if you are lucky enough) you might get a seat so you can eat without standing up. Then you stuff all that lunch down in five minutes, run at full speed back to school to make your next class and feel miserable with a sick stomach for the rest of the day. But then, can we complain? Nobody is making us eat lunch, right?

NAMES

Isn't it awful to make fun out of your friends' names? Well, we awful people of the "Echoes" staff did and here are some names of a few Yo-Hians!

Senior SPOTLIGHT!

Our first senior today is one of last year's great majorettes, and most probably one of this year's, Nancy Gorman. Nancy's an old-timer at Yo-Hi and finds the school very interesting. Her likes are French fried onion rings with mustard, BOYS, the Doors, and friendly people. Her dislikes are Ketchup, smart alecs, and rain. Her favorite song is "Light My Fire" by The Doors. She plans to be here fifteen more months and then go to Portland, Oregon, for college. Nancy has one thing to say to the students of Yo-Hi: "Try your best and be successful."

Our spotlight focuses next on one of Yo-Hi's football players, Mike Roley. Even though the season hasn't started yet, it must be pretty rough at practice. (Look at Mike's foot.) He comes from Portland, Oregon, and likes Oregon very much. He has been in Japan 2½ years and is neutral about life here. Among Mike's interests are Marcha, football, wrestling, track, motorcycles, and Oregon. His dislikes are snobs, liver, grapefruit, football cleats that don't stay on, and casts. His favorite song is "Summertime," both vocal and instrumental. He plans to be heading back to Oregon to visit relatives. Then, he is on to college. Mike has one thing to say: "I would like to see everyone out supporting all the Yo-Hi teams from football to tennis. The more support we have, the better we'll do."

We'd like to thank Mike and Nancy for their time and we'll see you next week in the SENIOR SPOTLIGHT.

GOOD MANNERS

This week we are offering some DON'TS in Japanese table etiquette. Compare these rules with rules of American etiquette.

DON'T:

- ...pick up chopsticks until one's seniors have taken theirs.
- ...linger over dishes undecided as to what to take next.
- ...take food from the soupbowl without lifting the bowl from the tray.
- ...take food from the dishes on the farther side without lifting up the dishes.
- ...take up dishes on the right side with the left hand or those on the left with the right.
- ...pick up and bite off chunks of food that can not be eaten in one mouthfull.
- ...use your own chopsticks when helping your self from a serving dish. If there are no separate chopsticks, either ask for some or reverse your own and use the opposite ends.
- ...leave any rice uneaten in one's bowl. If unable to finish a full second serving, one should ask for a light serving.
- ...fail to lay down your chopsticks and stop eating while being given a second serving.
- ...smack the lips, or speak with the mouth full.
- ...publicly use a toothpick.

DON'TS FOR THE FIRST TIME

SOME WORD PLAY

Summertime was just Yesterday, but Now That It's Over, we're back to the old grind. Try to Remember when you walked down the hall the first time this year--all the old and new faces you saw. At your locker you hear bits of Dangling Conversation around you about what happened this summer at the Midnight Hour. With a little Help from Your Friends, you find your home room, and you Get Ready for the assembly. I asked My Girl, Ready, "who is that man?" She said, "He is A Well Respected Man, the Principal." He gave a speech on how The Times They are A Changing. After a nice talk on the boys' haircut rule, we left the gym. I went to my first period gym class and heard the teacher screaming Sock it to Me, Baby. Second period I had art--my teacher didn't like my red painting, so he told me to Paint it Black. But since it was such a Bad Day, I decided to paint it a whiter shade of Pale. At the end of the day when we were Homeward Bound, he Don't Look Back on the first day, but will gladly welcome other school days. And now, As I leave you softly, I'd like to remind you, if you are a Yokosuka student, you get home just in time for the 7:00 News.

CRISIS!

Returning this year to Yo-Hi with some of last year's students and faculty is the lunch crisis.

The bell ending fourth period has rung and the mad rush is on. First you have to push your way through the halls to your locker, put your books away, and then rush like a track star, either to the Teen Club, Cafeteria, or Bowling Alley to reserve a table. After having to fight off all of the other students, you receive your food, and stash it away at a rate which is ulcerous, and then it's another one-hundred yard dash back to the school.

The problem that we are trying to bring out is that the lunch "hour" is only one-half the time that should be allotted to students, but since lengthening the lunch period is impossible, another answer should be found.

If you, the students, have any ideas on how this problem could be resolved without changing the time schedule, please bring them in to the "Echoes", and we will try to publish them. Who knows? There may be an answer.

LISTEN, YOU ALL!

The time allotted the students for changing classes, if people learn to cooperate, is sufficient.

People, Yo-Hi is a small school with a large and still growing population, and it's your duty to look out for everybody else. If you'd just use judgement and common courtesy in the halls and not rush, you'd get to where you're going faster, and in one piece.

Would-U-Believe? SENIOR Name Game

Michele McFarling, when told by a certain teacher to put her feet on the floor, could not obey because her feet won't touch the floor.

Janet Tranter was swimming at the Green Beach pool when she lost the bottoms to her bathing suit.

Steve Everett had approximately 4 haircuts during the first 4 days of school (according to his sister).

Donna Scott had a good looking swimming teacher this summer but she never did learn how to swim!

Jerry Winters' favorite pastime is carrying gold-fish around in the library. Oh, yes, he doesn't eat them.

Terry Moore likes to sing, but only in Spanish I, 3rd period. (Drop by sometime and you might be able to get her to sing you her song.)

Tom Smigiels' English notes have a style all their own. Big, round burned holes in them. How did it happen, Tommy?

John Richardson, or, Don Juan, to some, likes to sleep during homeroom. He's so smart it doesn't matter whether he studies or not. Huh, John?

Charlie Richter got an unexcused tardy, kicked out for a haircut, and an unexcused absence all in one day! Bad day, right, Charlie?

See if you can guess who this student is. She is a senior who is 5 feet 4 inches tall. This brown haired, brown-eyed student says her favorite class is "The United States and World Affairs." Her favorite pastime is baseball and reading, not particularly in that order. Rock Hudson is her favorite screen personality; she says she also likes Tony Curtis. The dish that gets most of her attention happens to be spaghetti. The following facts should really give it away! She was born in Portsmouth, Virginia, on May 30, 1950. At present she likes not a single song but a whole album of music. The album is, Parsley, Sage, Rosemary, and Thyme by Simon and Garfunkle. This is the clincher for those who know her: Her favorite saying is, "Never do today what you can put off 'til tomorrow." If you don't know who this is by now then look at the bottom of the page for the answer.

Gossip in the paper is one thing—if it's just for fun—but malicious, hurting gossip is a completely different thing. Gossip can make a person feel a definite and lasting hurt.

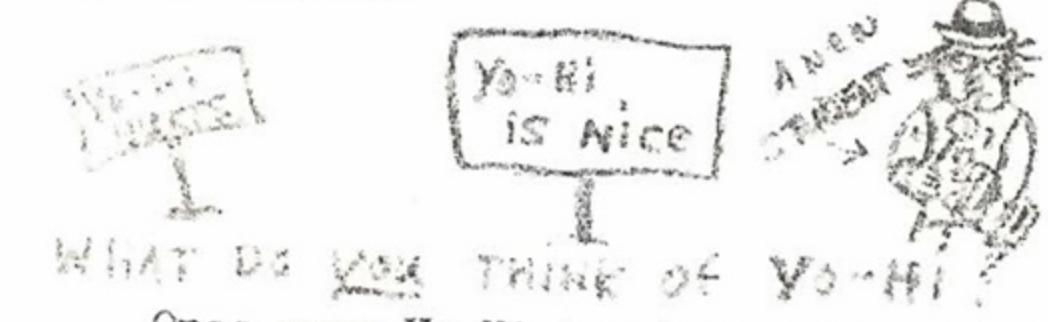

When you tell one person one thing by the time it is passed on and everyone adds their little piece to it, it winds up not even close to the truth.

Don't pick a person and talk about him. When a person's feelings or reputation are at stake, think before you talk.

The moral of this is... "Talk about others as you would have them talk about you."

In our first issues of the "Echoes" we will interview others as you would have them talk about you."

Once more Yo-Hi has been swamped with a wave of new students. The old people are sorry for the loss of old friends but we know these new faces will make up for them. You're all probably wondering what these new people think of Yo-Hi. In our first issues of the "Echoes" we will interview new students for possible ideas for the student government and faculty to make this a better school to attend.

Butch Jones, a Senior newcomer was asked what Yo-Hi has that his last school didn't or vice versa. His reply was: "The last school I went to had vending machines all over the place."

"Echoes": "Was that an improvement?"
Butch: "Not really. Most of the machines were either empty or broken down."
"Echoes": "Sounds familiar. Do you feel the subjects offered in this school are better than those in the previous schools you attended?"

Butch: "There is a lot more subject variety at this school than the last one I attended. I can't really offer any sort of opinion on the quality of the subjects because I haven't been here that long."

The next person I interviewed is also a Senior. Her name is Francine Faubian:

"Echoes": "Where was your last school?"
Francine: "Stockton, California."
"Echoes": "If you had any changes to make at Yo-Hi, what would you change?"
Francine: "I'd put clocks in the rooms and build a huge cafeteria."
"Echoes": "Do you think people at Yo-Hi are more friendly than the people at your last school?"
Francine: "They're about the same."

STUDENT OPINION

Now that summer is over and school has started, the boys of Yo-Hi are starting to lose some of that extra fat they somehow gained, not to mention some curly locks that mysteriously cropped up.

What can cause them to do that, you ask? Well, there's only one thing that can cause Yo-Hi boys to do such a thing...football.

This year's football team has eleven returning lettermen. Although its best defensive players will not return from last year, I feel that the only team that can beat the Devils is the Yamato Warriors.

The backfield this year will probably include two returning lettermen including last year's most valuable back. They are: D. Bennett (FB), and B. Olson (HB). This will be the core of the strongest offensive backfield in the league.

Yo-Hi's traditional "huge" line is not quite so big this year, and not quite as good. Although we still have J. Boyd, J. Borges, K. Miyasaki, N. Roley, Derf, J. Richardson, and D. Robertson, who make an excellent line, they don't match in size the Holbert Carrisons and Jim Philrotts of yesteryear.

Coming up from J. V.'s this year will probably be D. Gallion, T. Bilyue, and J. Drazkowski. There are others, but these seem like the most likely to see action.

The coaching staff for football this year is excellent. Coach Clumpner, along with his assistants, Coach Caldwell, Sgt. McCurly, and Bonnie Garza, appear to have gotten the Devils in shape in record time.

With Yo-Hi's fine new offense, coaching staff, returning lettermen, and players, I feel the only thing holding them back from taking first is their defense. If it improves then I can see no reason why we shouldn't take the championship this year.

WHY DO WE HAVE COW PASTURES FOR HALLS AT YO-HI?

I was merrily walking down the halls one day when from nowhere a herd of buffaloes appeared. Well, they weren't really buffaloes, but the way they were going down the halls it was difficult to distinguish what they were.

All this shoving, pushing, and jamming isn't really necessary in the halls. One doesn't have to stand in the middle of the ramps so no one else can go by. If one must stand and talk to his friends he should kindly float to an unused section of the halls.

A few people would like to get to class on time once in a while.

...Pushed and Bushed

YO-HI

This year will be one hundred percent better than last year because the student body this year will not tolerate the hanky panky of last year.

Right?

Right!

This year's student body will make it a school to be proud of--one to remember, not to forget.

This will be accomplished because the student body cares what other people say about our school. Mature people handle responsibility.

The student body this year is mature.

...A. Senior

A WORD FROM THE WISE

Probably every new student to Yo-Hi has mixed impressions of the school on his first encounter. In order for a school to live up to or change a new student's first impression, each student must contribute his best. If a student sees Yo-Hi as a good and valuable school, he should try to show fellow students these assets and continue to do so throughout the year.

On the other hand, if another student sees the school in a negative manner, he has to try harder to find the assets by asking those who are happy. He should become an active member of the student body in both classes and extra-curricular activities and thereby find positive attributes of the school.

Coming from a modern new high school in the States my first impression of the building was dismal. It looked cold and uninviting. By the end of the first week this impression had been replaced by the realization that there is more to a school than buildings. My first encounter with the student body was a friendly and helpful one. That impression has not changed. I will be happy to be a part of Yo-Hi.

As the year progresses, Yo-Hi will prove to each student, old and new, that it is a good school--it will, that is, if every student does his best to make it so!

...New Student

To our football team we have added a new member, or, should I say, a new coach. He is the assistant coach and promises to be a very valuable addition to the Yo-Hi staff.

Coach Caldwell has played 2 1/2 years with the Chicago Bears as linebacker. After that he went on to play 4 1/2 years for a semi-pro team (T.S.U.)

Last year he played for the Atsugi Flyers and was supposed to be their assistant coach this year, but we got him first.

He will be the line coach this year and the returning lettermen under him will tell you "work" is his middle name.

--The Prognosticator

Here I am with some information about the Kanto Plains teams--starting with the probable 2nd Division.

This year Chofu has only two returning lettermen, so we won't worry too much about them. I would say Chofu might have a fast backfield up from their JV's last year. Look out for Chofu's speed, but assign them to the 2nd Division.

Next, Zama will be the dark horse of the league this year. For one reason they have a boy who runs like a race horse--Kitsman. Other than him, though, they will be hurting. But let him out in the open enough, and who knows.

I have no idea what Narimasu will develop, but, going from last year's team, we won't have too much trouble this year with them. They'll take some lumps, I think.

A.S.I.J. is the baby of the league, new this year. Larry Pearce will be their star guard. (Some of you might know him for he played for our JV's two years ago when we went to the Turkey Bowl.) In spite of Larry, this will probably be a long season for the Mustangs.

ATTENTION: TOMORROW THE YO-HI VARSITY FOOTBALL TEAM IS GOING TO HAVE A PRACTICE GAME WITH THE ATSUGI FLYERS.

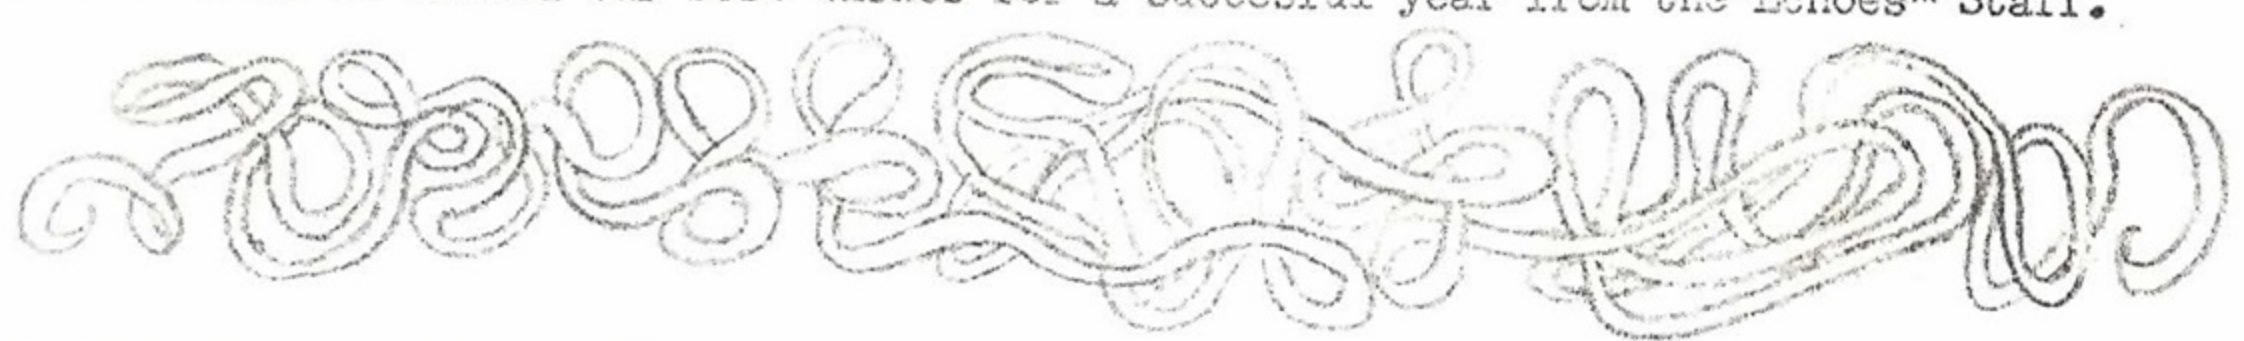

Our cheerleaders for the year of 67-68 were elected last Thursday evening after school. Everyone did her best but only ten could be elected. They are as follows:

---	---	---

GO!
Yo-Hi!

We would like to extend our best wishes for a succesful year from the "Echoes" Staff.

This year the sports page wishes to have an athletic spotlight which will feature the athletes of Yo-Hi in its many sports.

This week the spotlight focuses on Dale Bennett. Dale is a junior and will be playing his third year of football, two of which have been played at Yo-Hi. This year he will be in the Devil backfield, playing halfback and linebacker. Dale hails from Chicago, Illinois, and is a well known student in the halls of Yo-Hi.

Next we have Don Franz. Don is one of the mighty Seniors at YO-HI. He is from Adamis, Mass. He lived at the U.S. Naval Academy for two years while his father was an instructor there. Before coming to Japan, Don lived in the Philippines for two years. As a junior at Yo-Hi, he played JV football. This year, Don will play tackle for the Varsity football team. At 5'11," 160 pounds he will show a lot of fighting spirit in the coming season.

For our next spotlight we turn to tennis. The man is Richard Bernard. Richard was born in the city of New York. He is the top seed on the tennis team, and has been since joining the team two years ago. His opinion is that the team has not changed much from last year. He also states we will be in the running for the League Trophy this year. I am sure we of Yo-Hi wish Richard and the tennis team the best of luck this season.

WHAT ABOUT THIS YEAR'S TEAM?

Ken Schmidt: I think that since we have a good coach and the players are good we'll be okay.

Nate Jackson: My opinion is we are going to have a winning season.

Mr. Grosser: Judging from last year I think that this year's team has the potential to be among the top three in the league.

Mike Roley: My opinion is that this year's line is going to be mean. We have five of our seven starting linemen from last year.

Coach Clumpher: The seniors are the backbone of the team. If they show leadership we will win.

Mr. Carpenter: If we get by Johnson we'll stand a good chance of going all the way.

Wayne Tharrington: I think that the team is pretty good myself. The only thing about it is the line.

Gossip

Dear Editor,

If you will recall, the gossip column in the "Echoes" last year was only about a certain set of people. It got pretty sickening reading about what Joe Surf did last night, and why Bill Surf broke up with Jill Surf, and which Surf got drunk the other weekend. I hope this year's gossip column, if there is one, will include a variety of names which change every week.

Rejected

Dear Rejected,

Yes, more than likely we will have a gossip column this year, although we won't call it one. We realize that only a select few names were in the paper last year, and the majority of the students were completely left out, so this year we will try to include a wide variety of personalities and events.

Ed. Spelled

OPINIONS OUT!

(The student poll this week contains one very serious question, and one on the light side.)

WHAT DO YOU THINK THE STUDENT COUNCIL SHOULD ACCOMPLISH THIS YEAR?

Wilhelmina Veazie: Of course our Council should continue the support of our two Vietnamese orphans and even try to raise the number to three. It should try to bring about closer ties between the students and the faculty, and it should be the Student Council.

Mr. Burrill: Rather than what it should do, I would prefer to comment on what it should be made up of--leaders, in all aspects of behavior, on campus and off--people to whom other students may look for inspiration and emulation. This has not always been the case in the past.

Freida Russell: I think the Student Council should try its best to make this the best year Yo-Hi has ever had. Everything that is possible to do--"Let's do it."

WHAT WOULD YOU DO IF YOU HAD A XIPHOSURAN?

Becky Bean: Take it to Diane's and give it to Bill and Marty.

Jon Snyder: Get rid of it immediately.

LaVerne Stansell: I'd go to the base and give it to N.B., S.S., and C.J.

Sharon Batterton: I would take it home and give it to my little brother.

Ralph Ratific: I would think for a while and most likely throw it away.

Well, what is a xiphosuran? A kind of crab--like a shell fish, you know.

LIBRARY

In case you haven't heard yet. The High School library is located in the quonset but marked "2nd Grade" to the left of " " building.

The crazy every-five-minute bells are a result of double sessions for 5th, 6th, and 7th grades. They will be ceased when there are less crowded conditions... which is to say...not this year.

ODE TO KINNICK HIGH

A dillar a dollar
The eight-o'clock scholar.
Why the long face of gloom?
Is it because you slave all day,
And others don't come until noon?

WORTHLESS FACT OF THE WEEK:

---The name for the letter "H" in Greek meant "fence" or "barrier," as can be seen in the shape of the letter.

WORD OF WISDOM

---quintennial---occurring every five years...or, or, for five years.

YOUR WEEKLY HOROSCOPE--Sept. 8th, 1967

Avoid cracks in floor tiles this week or a great disaster will fall upon you. Also, don't use purple ink, or you will have terrifying nightmares.

A person born on this day will be highly suspicious--especially of cracks in floor tile and purple ink. He will be of great service to his country, however--in the F.B.I.

HOME ROOM PASS

It has been brought to the attention of 67-68 Yo-Hians that the homeroom situation is going to be changed this year. In previous years, students sauntered through the halls with passes of questionable origin.

This year we will be practically manacled to our desks during H.R. Unless, of course, we manage to obtain a legitimate pass. Make known your inexhaustible interest in a school activity. Become one of the "Active Ones." Bring out the Right Guard and put some work in the extra curricular activities of Yo-Hi.
